1. The amendment filed on August 29, 2005 has been entered. Accordingly, Claims 1-4 and 7 have been canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 5 and 6 are allowed.

The prior art of record, including Fuke et al. ('085), does not show or suggest the applicant's invention as claimed. Specifically, the prior art of record does not disclose a light-emitting device specifically including a pair of reflecting means spaced at a variable distance from an emission unit, and the operational coupling of the emission unit with the reflecting means allowing:

- the light flux, emitted from the arc-tube, not reaching the reflecting means when the distance between the is shorter than predetermined distance as recited in Claim 5;
- the light flux, emitted from the arc-tube, reaching the reflecting means when the distance between the is longer than predetermined distance as recited in Claim 5;
- a light guide being disposed between the pair of reflecting means when the distance between the emission unit and each of the reflecting means is shortest as recited in Claim 6.

The above-indicated combination makes the invention unique.

Fuke et al. ('085) discloses light emitting device comprising an arc-tube adjustable with respect to its distance from the reflector. variation in the distance between the emission unit and the reflector changes the direction and spread of the light flux. However, Fuke et al. ('085) does not teach the reflecting means not receiving light when the distance between the reflecting means and the emission unit is shorter than the predetermined distance. Further, Fuke et al. ('085) does not teach a light guide placed between the reflecting means and the emission unit. Therefore, Fuke et al. ('085) does not meet the limitations of claims 5 and 6.

Thus, Claims 5 and 6 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
